

EXPLORE PRLEKIJA – Ptuj, Jeruzalem

Not many cities have been as successful as Ptuj at preserving their medieval architectural design. A walk through the oldest Slovenian city will take you past Roman monuments and magnificent medieval facades. Cobbled streets and squares will lead you through the story of the most significant carnival character Korent, we will pass the dominican monastery, Orphean monument, church of St. George, City hall... Our next stop will be at the Pumpkin Oil Mill, where delicious goodies await you! From creamy pumpkin liqueur to various pumpkin seed oils, roasted pumpkin seeds, pumpkin spread, roulade, chocolate spread Bučetela and much more. Our final destination, Jeruzalem, is a picturesque village embraced by hilly vineyards that was built around st. Mary's church from 1652. According to legend, Jeruzalem got its name from returning French crusaders, who named it after the holy land after experiencing the regions kind people, beautiful nature and of course, divine wine. In a cosy vineyard cottage we will pamper ourselves with exquisite wines from Jeruzalem Ormož Wineries. At the end we will dive into culinary delights of local food and enjoy the typical lunch. Return to Maribor.
